Disclosure for Lifetime Legacy

AMERICO

Is Lifetime Legacy Right for You? Required

This disclosure must be signed and submitted with the application.

Lifetime Legacy is a specially designed life insurance policy for wealth transfer planning. Compared to many other financial products, repositioning some of your assets into Lifetime Legacy may allow you to pass on a larger, generally income tax-free benefit to your loved ones. Lifetime Legacy is not for everyone. You should ask yourself these important questions to determine if this policy is right for you:

Do I have assets set aside that I plan on passing on to my loved ones? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Aside from these assets, do I have financial resources that are more than adequate to support my daily needs? ☐ Yes ☐ No

I have identified assets that I will not need to support my daily needs and want to use these funds to purchase a Lifetime Legacy life insurance policy that may help me pass on more wealth to my loved ones.

Lifetime Legacy (Policy Series 258) is underwritten by Americo Financial Life and Annuity Insurance Company, Kansas City, MO, and may vary in accordance with state law. Products may not be available in all states. Riders are available for an additional cost, unless otherwise noted, and may not be available in all states. Certain restrictions apply. Consult policy and riders for all limitations and exclusions.

Lifetime Legacy may be designated a Modified Endowment Contract (MEC). Distributions of gain are subject to income taxation rules and IRS early distribution penalties. Please consult your tax advisor for further details.

All information shown here is hypothetical, intended for illustrative purposes only, and not guaranteed.

[1] Surrender charges and tax liability may be estimates based on information you've provided. Please note that withdrawing funds from or surrendering annuities or life insurance may be subject to immediate tax consequences and surrender or withdrawal charges. Neither Americo nor any agent representing Americo is authorized to give legal or tax advice. Please consult a qualified, professional legal or tax advisor regarding the information and concepts contained in this material.

[2] The policy's guaranteed minimum death benefit is equal to the initial specified amount as defined in the policy assuming no loans, withdrawals or accelerations of the death benefit are taken. The guaranteed minimum death benefit is guaranteed for the lifetime of the insured, assuming no policy loans, withdrawals, or accelerations of the death benefit have been taken.

[3] The quotes presented on this worksheet are based only on the information provided and are not binding. These quotes do not constitute an offer or contract. The coverage ultimately provided may differ based upon your individual circumstances and may vary by state.

[4] Accelerated Benefit Payment Rider (Rider Series 2149). Benefits may vary by state and may not be available in all states. Certain limitations and exclusions apply. The permanent nursing home benefit is payable after a 90-day elimination period from the time confinement begins. Because accelerated benefit payments are treated as liens against the policy, interest will apply and will gradually decrease the amount of proceeds payable over time.

State insurance law may prohibit the owner of a life insurance policy from entering into any agreement to sell, transfer or assign a life insurance policy prior to the date the policy was issued, or within a period of time specified by state law after the date the policy was issued. You should consult with legal advisors if you have any questions about these matters. It is Americo Financial Life and Annuity Insurance Company's policy that life insurance should only be purchased to provide protection to those with an insurable interest in the life of the Insured. Americo will not knowingly participate in life insurance sales motivated by a possible sale of life insurance contracts to a secondary market or participation of investors in life insurance benefits.

Disclosure Statement for Accelerated Benefit Payment Rider ANE8398

This disclosure contains a brief description of some of the important features of the Accelerated Benefit Payment Rider. This disclosure does not constitute a contract. Only the actual provisions of the Accelerated Benefit Payment Rider will control.

TAX CONSEQUENCES OF RECEIVING AN ACCELERATED BENEFIT PAYMENT

Depending on a number of factors, an Accelerated Benefit payment may be considered taxable income. The Owner should seek assistance from a qualified tax advisor before requesting an Accelerated Benefit payment.

Accelerated Benefit Payment Description

Accelerated Benefits are benefits payable under the life insurance policy to which the Rider is attached and provide for an early payment of a portion of the Death Benefit following a Qualifying Event. A Qualifying Event occurs if the Insured: (1) has a non-correctable medical condition that, with reasonable medical certainty, will result in death in 12 months or less; or (2) has any medical condition which is expected to result in the Insured's permanent and continuous confinement in an Eligible Institution. We must receive a written statement from a Physician certifying the Insured's medical condition and: (1) the Insured's life expectancy; or (2) the expected permanent and continuous confinement of the Insured in an Eligible Institution.

Only one acceleration is permitted. We must receive written approval from any irrevocable beneficiary, as well as the full release of any collateral assignment of the Policy, before making payment.

ELIMINATION PERIOD

If the Qualifying Event is the Insured's expected permanent and continuous confinement in an Eligible Institution, the Insured must be continuously confined for ninety (90) days before any Accelerated Benefit will be paid.

There is no Elimination Period if the Qualifying Event is the Insured having a non-correctable medical condition which will result, with reasonable medical certainty, in death in twelve (12) months or less.

Amounts available under the Accelerated Benefit Payment Rider

The Owner may request up to 80% of the result of (a) minus (b) as of the date the request is received, where: (a) is the Specified Amount; and (b) is any outstanding policy loans. The maximum Accelerated Benefit payable is $250,000 with a minimum available payment of $5,000.

Cost of the Accelerated Benefit

There is no premium or Cost of Insurance for the Accelerated Benefit Payment Rider.

Payment of the Accelerated Benefit and Use of the Proceeds

The proceeds payable under the Accelerated Benefit Payment Rider are paid to the Owner and may be used for any purpose. The Owner may elect the Accelerated Benefit payment as a lump sum or equal periodic payments. Equal periodic payments may be paid quarterly or semi-annually over a period of twelve (12) months. During the payment period the Owner may elect to receive the remaining Accelerated Benefit payments as a lump sum.

Effect of Accelerated Benefit Payment on the policy's values and Death Benefit

The Accelerated Benefit payment and any accrued interest will be a lien against the Policy. The total amount of this lien and all policy loans outstanding will reduce the amount otherwise available under the Policy's: (1) Death Benefit and (2) Cash Surrender Value for full or Partial Surrenders and future Policy Loans.

Policy Monthly Deductions will not be reduced after an Accelerated Benefit payment and will remain payable.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I, the undersigned Proposed Insured (and Policy Owner, if other than the Proposed Insured), acknowledge that I have read and received this Disclosure Statement for Accelerated Benefit Payment Rider at the time of application for the Policy and Rider.

NOTICE REGARDING MODIFIED ENDOWMENT CONTRACTS

The Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988 (TAMRA) created a class of life insurance policies called Modified Endowment Contracts (MEC). Generally, a life insurance policy is a MEC if the policy is purchased with a single premium or premium payments which exceed the limits prescribed by this law.

If this policy is or becomes a MEC, policy loans, withdrawals, assignments and surrenders will be taxed as income to the extent that there is a gain in the contract. There is gain in the contract if the cash values exceed the cost basis in the policy (generally the premiums paid). In addition, you must pay a 10% tax penalty on the taxable portion of any policy loan, withdrawal, assignment or surrender made by you before age 59½. This information is merely a summary of Internal Revenue Code rules which govern life insurance policies. As with all tax matters, you should seek the advice of a qualified tax advisor. By my signature on the attached application, I acknowledge the policy issued from this application may be issued as, or may become, a Modified Endowment Contract.
